Buen camino!

Camino by kayak

The Camino de Santiago consists of a series of medieval routes leading to the tomb of the Apostle Saint James the Greater in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela. Traditionally completed on foot, by bicycle, on horseback, or by sailboat, it now also welcomes pilgrims who undertake it by kayak—a truly unique style that combines exceptional elements and scenery. Along the Ría, you will discover clam and oyster farms, white-sand beaches, and turquoise waters, where poetry and magic blend into reality... A trip, a pilgrimage, a journey, an expedition, an adventure that lets you experience all of this and more...

DAY 1

Meeting and transport to campsite

AUG/30/2027

MEETING AND TRANSFER FROM SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA TO SAN VICENTE DE O GROVE

- DEPARTURE AT 1:30 PM. Transfer to Camping Paisaxe II in O Grove.
- Technical briefing (prior to departure) at 5:00 PM.
- Terms agreement signature, insurance review, and gear distribution.
- Welcome dinner and activity
- Overnight stay at the campsite hostel

DAY 2

The sea journey begins!

Leg 1

16 km

AUG/31/2027

SAN VICENTE DE O GROVE - ILLA DE AROUSA

- First day of sea kayaking.
- We will paddle along the O Grove peninsula, Illa da Toxa, and the stunning Illa de Arousa.
- We will enjoy local produce harvested from these rich waters.
- Area Grande Beach. "Start Point of the Camino" Salting Museum (Punta Moreiras).
- O Grove Fish Market and Auction House (Camino stamp) Illa de A Toxa.
- Carreirón Natural Park (beaches).
- Overnight stay at campsite (Single or double tent).

DAY 3

Leg 2

17 km

SEP/01/2027

ILLA DE AROUSA - PUNTA CABIO (Pobra do Caramiñal)

The Camino continues through natural parks, paradise beaches, and islets reminiscent of Caribbean landscapes. An ideal time to keep enjoying the beaches, relax snorkeling, paddle among mussel platforms (bateas), and sample local cuisine at some of the best beach bars in the Ría de Arousa.

- Walk through Carreirón Natural Park (Isla de Arousa), Areoso Islet (season permitting).
- Area da Secada Beach.
- Visit to the Arousa Lighthouse (Punta Cabalo).
- Punta Cabio (Coruña).
- Overnight stay at campsite. (Single or double tent).

DAY 4

Leg 3
21 km
SEP/02/2027

PUNTA CABIO - RIANXO

On this leg, the guides lay out the route through the Mar de Arousa and the Ulla River (Fluvial Via Crucis). With any luck, we will paddle alongside bottlenose dolphins, as sightings are frequent on this stretch of water.

The landscape diversity begins to shift, revealing lush forested areas bordering the sea, the Serra do Barbanza rising in the background, and fishing villages, beaches, and islets emerging along the route.

Good food, music, and a bit of dancing to stretch the muscles and bring this spectacular day to a close.

- Visit to the historic center of A Pobra do Caramiñal.
- Os Baos Islets (snorkeling)
- A Retorta Beach
- A Fontela Beach (Portomouro)
- Rianxo (Grandes)

DAY 5

Kayak expedition completion
Leg 4
23 km
SEP/03/2027

RIANXO - PADRÓN

Our final day on the water. Just when you think you have seen it all, you find yourself deep in inland Galicia floating on the sea (Cortegada Island), surrounded by hundreds of wooden poles marking the clam farming plots.

The estuary narrows towards its end, where the boundary with the river is guarded by the West Towers—and Viking ships! All that remains is to paddle up the Ulla River, soaking in its breath-taking scenery, calm waters, and wildlife. It is time to absorb the energy of this transition: the end of our kayak navigation and the imminent beginning of the next adventure, in another element...

- Visit to Cortegada Island. (Atlantic Islands National Park).
- Carril (traditional shellfish harvesting experience).
- Fluvial Via Crucis.
- West Towers and Viking ships.
- Vilarello River Beach.
- Pontecesures (end of kayak leg).
- Overnight stay in a private room.

DAY 6

Trekking to Santiago de Compostela begins

Leg 5

PORTUGUESE CAMINO

SEP/04/2027

PADRÓN – SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA
(Route: Portuguese Camino)

- We will start the trekking stage, joining other pilgrims hiking the Portuguese Way to Santiago de Compostela.

- Our hike will take us along beautiful wooded trails crossing fields, vineyards, small villages, valleys, and rolling hills. We will tackle an elevation gain of approximately 600 meters all the way to Santiago.

- On this day, the group stays closer together, creating the perfect atmosphere to chat, share experiences from the trail, and get to know each other better.

- After about five to six hours of hiking—with well-deserved breaks to cool off and grab a snack—Santiago starts appearing in the distance. Before our final arrival, a very special stop awaits us: a celebratory feast featuring octopus, prawns, and grilled meat, paired with traditional bowls of local wine or delicious liqueurs.

- Arrival in Santiago. Visit to the cathedral and the historic city center.
- Emotional farewell, celebrating having successfully reached our goal.
- Participants have the option of a return transfer to O Grove or staying in Santiago.
- Our support vehicle will transport all participants' luggage to hand it over at the end of the activity.

A Journey of Flavors!

Over six days, you will immerse yourself in an unparalleled gastronomic experience, exploring one of the richest regions in land and sea produce, steeped in a millenary maritime tradition. The Ría de Arousa stands as a culinary gem, home to a wide variety of marine species such as mussels, oysters, scallops, clams, cockles, razor clams, edible crab, spider crab, European lobster, octopus, and much more.

Immerse yourself in a countryside offering top-quality fresh produce and discover one of Spain's finest wine regions, holding the "Rías Baixas" Designation of Origin—renowned as the birthplace of the exquisite "Albariño." With all these ingredients, every bite will be an explosion of flavors that you will find impossible to forget.

Throughout your journey, every meal stop will be a unique experience. We work closely with local families who, in their furanchos (traditional wine cellars), beach bars, and restaurants, will delight you with delicious homemade meals. Authenticity and a genuine connection with the local community are the keys to this culinary adventure.

If you have special dietary requirements, don't worry—we will adapt to your preferences. We want every bite to be a finger-licking delight, regardless of your dietary restrictions. Get ready to experience a extraordinary culinary expedition, an adventure where the flavors of the Rías Baixas will turn into unforgettable memories. Come and savor the magic of local cuisine as you navigate this one-of-a-kind journey!
